ASHTON, 207 News Bldg.

IN ORDER TO APPEASE THE CURIfollowed the career as a real estate dealer we thought it was timely to go into details in describing his new offices at 22-34 expects to occupy about March 15th to

As descriptions to be worthy must be accurate, we will begin by stating that almost directly opposite Mr. Reavis's new location will be situated the Z. C. M. I. This large concern, no doubt, is looking forward to Mr. Reavis's coming move with much secret pleasure, for they realize that there will be "something doing" on the block when Mr. Reavis gets located, in this connection we will state that Mr. Reavis expects not only to make his efforts to promote trade in his locality useful to himself but with an inborn spirit of unselfishness, he will never fall to think of his neighbors welfare.

Now turn we to a more careful description of the location of Mr. Reavis's new offices than can be grasped from the more street number, 32-34 Main street.

We will begin by stating that McCornick's will be on one corner south of Mr. Reavis's offices, the Descret National and Descret Savings bank on another, whils the Utah State bank will be directly south, about 50 feet from Mr. Reavis's front door.

On the corner to the north will be located, when Mr. Reavis gets settled, the Descret News building, a great ornament to Salt Lake City and the home of a great newspaper. It is said that the tenants of this building are delighted to hear that Mr. Reavis is about to occupy 33-34 Main street, for, as one man said. "That as all roads lead to Reavis's offices, the shorter the road the better."

We will continue our description by stating that a little further north, on the same side of the street as 2-34 Main street, the Mormon Temple rears its engel-capped dome, and if you were to stand in the front door of Mr. Reavis's offices and look northeasterly, you would observe the Zion's Savings bank, occupying the lower floor of the Templeton building. Yes, from every point of the compass, except to the west, 22-34 Main street, is environed by concerns of wealth and standing. The location is the very bub of the business center, and time will make still greater the already great advantages this location as to where 2-34 Main street is locat As descriptions to be worthy must be

SALT LAKE ROUTE OPENED TO THE SEA

Gala Time at Riverside When the New Road Was Opened With a Celebration.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., March 12 .- The Salt Lake road was opened to Riverside today with a special excursion and a local celebration. A special train from Los Angeles and Pomona, bearing members of the chamber of commerce as guests of Riverside, arrived at 11:30 this morning. The train passed under a triumphal arch and through floral gates, which were swung open by two little girls as the train approached. From a stand which had been erected north of the new passenger station, Mayor C. L. McFarland officially welcomed the railroad to the city. Re-sponse was made on behalf of the railroad by T. E. Gibbon, second vice-president, and on behalf of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce by H. S. McKee, president. Hon. Oscar Lawter apoke for Los Angeles.

J. Ross Clark, first vice-president of the read, spoke of the pleasure of the officials of the road at having this important section of their system completed. The speaking was closed by Bishop Conaty of Los Angeles. This afternoon the guests of the city were entertained by a programme of sports and special exercises at the Sherman Indian institute. With the opening of the line today and the inauguration of the train schedule temorrow the Salt Lake route now has 104 miles of track in operation in California, which is as follows; The old Terminal road, Pasadena to east San Pedro, 37 miles; Los Angeles to Verdugo park, nine miles; Los Angeles to Riverside, 68 miles. The new line thrown open today is a continuation of the main line east from Ontario to Riverside.

Regarding the ownership of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake, the Railway Age says: "The report that E. H. Harriman holds a controlling interest in this road is denied, and it is officially stated that neither Mr. Harriman nor the Union Pacific system holds any of the San Pedro stock, but the Union Pacific received $14,000,000 in bonds in exchange for the Oregon Short Line extension from Sait Lake south, sold to the San Pedro company. It is further declared that the new road will be in operation from Sait Lake to Los Angeles by Christmas day."

Railroad Note. P. M. MacGregor of the chief clerk's office in the freight department of the oregon Short Line left the city yester day for the East.
